

PAUL MILNER

About Paul

Paul, a native of England, specialises in British Isles research. He is co-author of Genealogist's Guide to Discovering Your Scottish Ancestors and Genealogist's Guide to Discovering Your English Ancestors, plus Genealogy at a Glance: English Research. He is the product review editor for the FGS FORUM and past board member of FGS, APG and GSG.

His topics

Scotland – Maps and Gazetteer for Research

All levels

Learn what maps and gazetteers are available, especially online, for researching your ancestors in Scotland and what finding aids are available to make sure you are searching in the correct place. Case studies will show how to physically put your ancestors on the ground.

Buried Treasures: What's in the English Parish Chest

Intermediate - Advanced

Solve your worst genealogical problems with the civil jurisdiction records of England's parishes. All levels of society to be found in these records.

Tracing Your Pre-WWI British Soldier

Intermediate to Advanced

Examine online, original and print resources, with case studies, for tracing your British soldiers and their regiments serving around the world from 1660 through to WWI.

Digging for Gold: Locating British Miners and their Records

All levels

Many miners coming to Australia came with skills learned in the hard rock and coal mines of the British Isles. Learn about the records they created, where to locate them, and how to put them into social context.

Genealogical Lecturing Skills: Proposal to Presentation

Intermediate to Advanced

So you want to be a Genealogical Lecturer? Learn how to submit a polished proposal; prepare your content and visuals; and deliver an outstanding presentation. Learn how to recognize your personal strengths to capitalize on them, and weaknesses so you can overcome them.